Electronic Delivery Statement

Nomination papers submitted electronically by email must be delivered in accordance with the arrangements set out in this statement.

Nomination papers for Corwen Town Council (Lower Ward) may be emailed to:

Communitycouncil.candidates@denbighshire.gov.uk

The above email address may also be used for nomination queries and for submitting draft nomination papers for an informal check (please clearly mark in the subject field of the email 'Draft Nomination for Checking').

Formal submissions of nomination papers should be clearly marked as 'Formal Submission of Nomination'.

Where possible, please include your telephone contact details in the covering email in case of queries.

Nomination papers should be attached to the email in either a Word or PDF format. A typed signature, electronic signature, or a wet ink signature (on a scanned nomination paper) are all valid signature types for nomination papers delivered electronically.

It is the responsibility of candidates to ensure that the Returning Officer receives nomination forms in the correct way by the required deadlines.

An electronic read receipt from the Returning Officer is not confirmation that the nomination is valid. The Returning Officer will send a notice to inform candidates of his decision as to whether or not their nomination is valid. However, you should receive an automatic response from the email address shown above, which will indicate that an email has been received. If you do not receive an automatic response please contact elections@denbighshire.gov.uk
